CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. T. J. Godby will preach at McKinney at 3 o'clock Sunday evening.

—Two of the oldest men in the county gave thanks at the sacramental service at the Christian church Sunday—for the bread, James R. Warren, 85, and for the wine, J. L. Dawson, 83.

—Dr. Frederick Upham, of Fairhaven, Mass., has just celebrated his 90th birthday, which was also his 69th year of his ministry. He has been with the New England Conference since 1821 and still fills an appointment.

—The Cumberland Presbyterian church added to its membership during the past year, upon examination, 13,063, making the entire membership 160,183, divided into 2,680 congregations, with 1,595 ministers, 248 licentiates and 231 candidates.

—Rev. George O. Barnes, en route to his southern home, will preach at the Christian church Thursday evening next at 8 o'clock. A dispatch from him received yesterday says he will preach also at Walnut Hills Tuesday night and at Lancaster Wednesday night.

—Sam Jones, the evangelist, is reported to be very much broken in health as the result of overwork, and his physicians have ordered him to cease all his preaching and travel and take absolute rest. The physicians desire a vote of thanks for their thoughtfulness.

—A Methodist preacher named Duran was arrested in Chambers county, Ala., and lodged in jail, charged with passing counterfeit money. At the trial he proved that the money came from the contribution box at his church and that of eight silver dollars deposited seven had proved spurious. He said God and the sinners who passed the coins were the only ones who knew it and the case was dismissed.

—Bro. Gibson told of a lady Sunday, a member of the congregation, who lived less than half a mile from the courthouse and is a subscriber to the INTERIOR JOURNAL, who said she did not know that the present meeting was to be held. She must devote her entire attention to the personal column. Notice of the meeting was given nearly six months ago and at intervals since and it is her own fault if she remained in ignorance of it.

—Rev. A. P. Cobb arrived on time and the long advertised meeting at the Christian church began under favorable auspices Sunday night. Mr. Cobb is a clear and forcible speaker, with an attractive presence and good delivery and has favorably impressed the large crowds who attended the services, which are held at 10:30 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. The subject for to-night's discourse is "The Model Young Man." The meeting will continue certainly till next Sunday and perhaps longer.

NO ANXIETY ABOUT HERSELF.—Among the guests at an old lady's recent birthday party was her son. As the old lady was celebrating her centennial and the son was 80 years old they made a remarkable couple. The mother, in spite of her years was so strong and vigorous, both mentally and physically, that it seemed almost incredible that she had rounded out a full century of existence, and her son had been absent from her for several years. The meeting between them had been very affectionate, and they had remained close to each other during the son's stay. When the time came for him to go he embraced his mother, saying wistfully, "Well, mother, I suppose this is the last time I shall ever see you." The mother looked up quickly and astonished. "Why, dear, what's the matter?" she asked. "Don't you feel well?"—Boston Advertiser.

Channey Dope recently told a good story of himself. "When I was traveling to New Haven on an accommodation," said he, "I thought that the whole State of Connecticut had its attention fixed on the fact that I was to make a speech to the law school graduates at Yale. When a farmer got on at a way station and, after looking at me five minutes, asked if I was not Channey Dope, I said to myself, 'Here is an intelligent son of an intelligent State. He is going on to hear my speech.' He confirmed my impression by asking, 'Are you going up to New Haven?' but when I answered 'Yes' he simply said, 'Base ball game, I suppose?'"

To the Voters of Lincoln County.

My friends throughout the county know I am a candidate for re-nomination and endorsement at the hands of my party at the approaching Primary Election for office of Jailer, and I deem it proper to say to them that I am prevented from making an active personal canvass from this time to the Primary Election for several reasons, which are these: Circuit Court is near I hand and the jails full of prisoners from this county and others, charged with offenses from the highest to the lowest; the Court of Claims will be in session next week. These things require me to be at the post of duty. In addition to this my brother S. C. has been stricken down with paralysis and requires all the attention I can spare at his bedside. For these reasons I urge every friend I have to come to the Primary Election and to urge every other friend and supporter to come. I am asking for an endorsement, that which is accorded to every other man without opposition, who is a candidate for a county office. If I have made a faithful officer show me your appreciation of it by coming out and giving me your support. No man can be nominated if his friends stay at home. I will thank you for coming and for your votes.

SAMUEL M. OWENS.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—The lovely weather of last week gave the farmers a chance to rush their small grain into the ground and they took advantage of it.

—The trial of Estes for cutting Warren was to come off Saturday, but was again continued. The parties seem yet to be warlike from the amount of guns seen in town Saturday on each side. Citizens, all this will do no good, come fairly down to the law and let it be settled thereby. Take it coolly, whether for you or against you.

—The Crab Orchard Sals Co. have suspended indefinitely from receiving any more salts from the producers on account of the productions far exceeding their ability to dispose of them. They have several thousand pounds accumulated and the production has reached a point beyond the demand. Many of the furnaces will shut down. The company has been paying 18 cents a pound for the salts and some furnaces make 200 to 400 pounds a week. The suspension cuts off considerable revenue, which means bread and meat for many poor people, who depend on the business for a living.

—Mr. Lenich, having disposed of his interest in the drug store to E. W. Jones, will return to Greenville, O. Dr. Zeller will remain with us. J. R. Bailey and wife and Mrs. J. A. Newland have returned, the former from Louisville and the latter from Indianapolis. Dr. Cooper has returned from Washington. Mrs. Peter Carmany is very low. Mrs. Livingston has been very sick with pleurisy at her daughter's, Mrs. S. B. Pennington. Miss Belle Livingston is with her. J. Reynolds and Josh Wilson were carried by and got the benefit of the scare at Gun Sulphur. A party from Pittsburgh became so frightened when the accident occurred that they jumped out of the windows and Mrs. M. C. Niel sprained her ankle severely.

MT. SALEM.

—John C. Estes died of typhoid fever, on the 1st inst., aged 38 years. He leaves a wife and 7 children, 5 boys and 2 girls.

—Elder S. A. Butt has been conducting a meeting at the Richards' school-house at night for the past week; additions to date.

—The Standard Oil Company's stock is stated at $120,000,000.

—In the third race at Latonia Saturday three horses fell and Jacks Mages, Brown and Nailing were seriously injured.

—The Supreme Court of Iowa has rendered a decision affirming the constitutionality of the prohibition law of that State.

—Allen Brown, colored, one of the rioters at Marion, Miss., was sentenced to be hanged November 18. The case will be appealed.

—Lewis and Cyrus Goff, brothers, quarreled over a game of chance at Winchester and the former cut the latter's throat, killing him.

—There are now 333 cotton mills in the South, where there were only 142 in 1880. South Carolina leads the list with Georgia a good second.

—The negro, Stark, who died into a church at Moss Point, Ala., murdering a man and wounding his daughter, was killed by a posse while he was resting in a room.

—At Millersburg, Deputy Sheriff Joe Forsyth shot and seriously wounded Sylvester Williams, a drunken negro who insulted some white ladies and then resisted arrest.

—Felix Knapp, of Kanawha, W. Va., accused his daughter of stealing two cat trouts and attacked her with a dagger. The son interfered and he stabbed them both to death.

—The news comes from Kansas that although the election is a long time off, there is already an overpowering strong opposition to the return of Mr. Ingalls to the United States Senate.

—During a desperate fight with convicts in Pulaski county, Ga., one of them was killed. Five escaped, but three were recaptured. A guard's life was saved by the two of the prisoners.

—The League base ball, season ended Saturday. New York wins the championship, with Boston two games behind. Chicago 3d, Philadelphia 4th, Pittsburgh 5th, Cleveland 6th, Indianapolis 7th and Washington 8th. The Association season season will end Oct. 17.

—There are nearly 8,000,000 colored people in the democratic Southern country, and they have but one member of Congress to represent them," says the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette (Rep.) There are nearly 80,000 colored people in the State of Ohio, and they have not so much as one postmaster to represent them.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Jigs (speaking of the influence cast over things by the presence of certain individuals)—I know a man so holy that every time he goes out selling you can see the waves spray. "Humph," murmured Jigs, "I know a man so profane that whenever he goes into a crockery store you can hear the glassware."—New York Herald.

Primary Election.

At a meeting of the democratic committee, held at Stanford, Oct. 5th, the following officers were appointed to hold the primary election in their precincts, on the 19th inst:

Stanford, No. 1 and 2—J. E. Lynn and R. L. Hubble, judges; W. A. Tribble, clerk.

Stanford, No. 3 (Hubble)—Sam Eagle man, John Bright, judges; Ben Swope, clerk.

Turnersville—James M. Carter, R. H. Givens, judges; J. H. Venhook, clerk.

Hustonville—L. B. Adams, John S. Goode, judges; J. M. Cook, clerk.

Highland—A. J. Henry, Henderson Bangh, judges; Charley Perry, clerk.

Waynesburg—Henry Caldwell, Jr., Robin Curtis, judges; Frank Howard, clerk.

Kingsville—Robert Rigney, Tipton Simms, judges; B. F. Parker, clerk.

Crab Orchard—W. D. Walden, S. A. Middleton, judges; E. W. Jones, clerk.

Walnut Flat—J. M. Coffey, W. A. Hall, judges; Hugh Sargent, clerk.

The vote shall be by ballot and shall commence and close at the same hours as the regular elections. Democrats and minors of democratic proclivities, who will attain their majority by the next August election, shall be allowed to vote, and the names of the voters shall be recorded in a poll-book. The boxes containing the ballots shall be counted by the officers and the number for each candidate shall be certified on the poll-book and returned on the following Monday to the chairman of the county committee, who will with one or more of the committee count and declare the results.

T. D. NEWLAND, Ch'n.

D. W. VANDEVEER, Sec'y.

HUMBLE.—We were very much delighted to have your business manager with us last Friday. The object of his visit, so far as your correspondence was able to learn, was purely social, with the exception of an intimation or two which was a little suspicious, that he was on a political mission. However, be that as it may, this county is chuck full of friends of Ed and would gladly welcome him back again. Our farmers are busily seeding and delivering their present crop of wheat to the Lancaster Mill Co., which has been under contract for some time at 75 cents per bushel. Rev. T. J. Godby, who has charge of the McKendree in connection with the Stanford church, came out and preached for us Sunday evening. Quite a good congregation was out to hear him and the universal expression was, "pleased." He will commence a protracted service on Monday evening, the 11th, at this place. Messrs. S. S. Myers and Richard Walter and Miss Naomie Walter and others were down to hear the initiatory sermon. The election returns show that all the candidates will get a fair vote in precinct No. 3. The prohibition element seems to be very indifferent as to the primary. Miss Mary Bright, of your city, has been on a week's visit to Miss Maggie Swinebroad. I understand that Mr. Ben Swope received a telegram Saturday evening from Lexington stating that his brother Jack was dangerously ill. E. A. White and sister, Mattie, are making their relatives a short visit at Hustonville.

W. P. Elliston neglected to lock his safe at Elliston Station and thieves took $350 from it.

Paul Key, the negro who outraged a young white girl, was hanged at Fredericksburg, Va., Friday.

Four Mississippi merchants were burned to death as they slept in Lot's restaurant at Winona, Miss. The loss by the fire was $25,000.

Engineer Twombly, whose drunkenness caused the Rock Island wreck, has been held in $25,000. He will be tried for murder in the first degree.

Charles B. Pratt, an Alderman, church treasurer and trusted cashier, was arrested at Meriden, Ct., for embezzling over $10,000. He confessed his guilt.

According to the weather crop bulletin, issued by the Signal Service Bureau, the greater portion of the tobacco crop is housed in Kentucky and Tennessee, without material damage from the frosts that have fallen.

A WHALE'S WEIGHT.—Nelson remarks that the weight of the great Greenland or right whale is 100 tons, or 200,000 pounds, equal to that of 88 elephants or 440 bears. The whalebone in such a whale may be taken at 3,330 pounds and the oil at from 140 to 170 tons. The remains of the fossil whale which have been found on the coast of Vstad, in the Baltic, and even far inland in Wanga-puse, Westergothland, betoken a whale which, although not more than 50 or 60 feet in length, must at least have had a body 27 times larger and heavier than that of the common or right whale.

For more than 30 years Jacob Jackson, a respectable colored man, who died in Massapequa last week, is said to have carried in his mouth a silver Mexican half dollar to charm the evil spirits away. The coin was removed only when he ate his meals. It was worn perfectly smooth.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mrs. Mary Berlow, an old lady on the West Side, died at the age of 70 years last week.

—Cabell Denney and "Toad" West are attending the teachers' meeting at Hamilton College, Lexington.

—Rev. J. C. Randolph preached his farewell sermon at the Presbyterian church last Sunday week. He will remove to Canada, but not as a bank cashier.

—John W. Petty, the oldest son of Joe M. Petty, died in Missouri last week. His father and mother, who had been summoned by wire, were both with him when he died and brought his body here for burial.

—Saturday afternoon while some tinners were repairing the top of the courthouse steeple roof, by some means the fire from their fire pot set fire to the woodwork at the top and was soon fanned into a blaze by the wind. For a time it looked rather squally and but for the daring efforts of Mort Rothwell the structure might have been destroyed.

—Col. D. R. Collier and son, William, are at home with Mrs. D. R. Collier, who is dangerously ill. Mrs. W. C. McFarland and Mrs. W. G. Danlap have gone to Mammoth Cave. Gen. W. J. Landrum went to Frankfort on professional business last week. Col. W. A. Hoskins is here to visit the bedside of his sick daughter, Mrs. D. R. Collier. Miss Dove Harris is very sick with typhoid fever.

—The county committee of Garrard finished the nominations for county officers by declaring Cart Robinson for Sheriff, Tom Wherritt for clerk, Ben Dann for assessor and Hiram Campbell for school superintendent, the nominees of the party. W. E. Walker for judge, Sam Rothwell for jailer and H. C. Kauffman for attorney had been formerly nominated. This makes a strong ticket and one that will be elected.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Mesack Gentry bought a pair of work mules at $225.

—F. L. Thompson, just from city. Immense stock. Jack Adams' stand. Go see.

—Mrs. Amanda Ramsey, a deserving widow, has, through the efforts of Gov. McCreary, been granted a pension with back pay amounting to $700.

—A horse belonging to Jeff Hansel, while standing near the railroad track, was frightened at a train and in attempting to turn fell and broke its leg.

—Twenty old fence rail stiles, including a tint lock, in town Saturday at a beef shooting match. Strange to say, old tint lock didn't get any beef.

—Hiram and John Hurd, brothers, had a fist fight Saturday evening in which John was worsted, receiving a whack on the side of his head from a pistol in Hiram's hands. Drunk.

—Jim Ballew, living one mile north of town, accidentally cut his hand Sunday evening while chopping candy from a pan and while sitting before the fireplace fainted and fell into the coals and was dangerously burned before he could be rescued.

—A lively chase was given the would-be mail and express robbers Sunday night near Hazel Patch, but they managed to elude their pursuers. It is believed they will be captured soon, as one is badly scratched up on account of his fall from the mail door and the other is thought to be wounded from shots fired at him as he ran on the night of the attempted robbery.

—Frank Previtt, an 11-year-old boy on his way home from school, exploded a dynamite cap by scratching it with his finger nail. He lost the half of one thumb, one finger and both hands were badly lacerated, portions of the cap going through his hands. George Hiatt, a little negro, had stolen a number of the caps from Mrs. Welsh's corn crib, where they were kept for safety and had given them to the school children, who fired some of them by building a fire and throwing the explosives into it.

—Our friend, S. R. Kennedy, master of trains on the O. & N., reports times good and says he is doing nicely. R. E. Thompson shipped a car of cattle and hogs to Cincinnati Saturday. J. H. Huff and family, accompanied by Walter Higginbotham and Gas Stewart leave today, Tuesday, for Sheridan Lake, Colorado; the former to remain, the latter on an investigating tour. J. M. Williams is in Louisville as a witness in the U. S. Court against Preston Bullack, charged with having stolen a mail pouch at Lexington two weeks since.

The farmer who strays off habitually to town or elsewhere for pasture loses interest in his work, forgets what is to be done and goes down to the dogs by sure degrees, leading a pinched and miserable life on land that might have supplied him and his with more than competence.—N. Y. Tribune.

Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup. Is giving splendid results in the trade and the sales are positively marvelous, which can be accounted for in no other way except that it is without doubt the best on the market. Ask for and be sure you get the genuine. We keep it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

—OF—

Splendid Bargains

Now crowded into our shelves and piled on our counters for the season. See if any House on earth does or can match these figures on the same quality of goods:

4,000 yards Best Standard Calico in Choice Fall Styles at 5 cents per yard, worth 7c.

One full case of Heavy Cheviot Shirting at 5c a yard. Always the best Brown or Bleached Muslin for any stated price to be found in any retail store in Kentucky. Try it and see if it is not so. The

Hat & Shoe Departments

Just teem with attractions for the season. We display the largest line of Shoes ever shown in Stanford, and prices are absolutely beyond comparison for cheapness.

Men's, Children's and Boy's Hats and Caps at scarcely half value. We bought them by the thousands and can sell them cheap or give them away. The stock of Clothing!

Is larger and cheaper than ever known. Men's and Boy's Suits and single garments at amazingly low prices. Our Coats $2.50 up. Heavy Pants for men 75c to $1.25; Suits $3.50 up, heavy for Winter.

There is scarcely anything you can name to wear that you don't find in our stock, cheap. Blankets, Comforts, Spreads, &c., way down in price. You can't tell much about it unless you drop in. The assortment of

DRESS GOODS

Is immense. Cheap 5 and 10-cent Dress Goods this season are beautiful and durable. It will pay you to look at them. The

Millinery Department

Is given special attention. Hundreds of lovely Hats and Bonnets are displayed at scarcely half regular price.

Our sole ambition is to make this establishment in future in a greater degree than ever the People's Headquarters for all lines of goods. We conduct a general Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoe and Notion Store and buy in enormous quantities for four large stores and can and do name prices that are lower than can be found in any retail House in Kentucky.

W. P. WALTON.

There is more rottenness to the square inch in the State of Ohio than in any other spot on the face of God's green earth. The present campaign is bringing it out in great sluices, which threaten to deluge Foraker and his crowd. In his speech in Cincinnati a few nights since, Campbell, the democratic candidate for governor, read a letter that produced a sensation even in that wicked city. It was from Topp, Chairman of the Board of Public Works, appointed by Foraker, to a city contractor. It reads as follows: "Please make out your bills for gravel $1 a yard and you pay me a drawback of 25 cents a yard in cash. I bought your gravel very cheap and it is fairly worth to the city $1. Send them to me at Put-in-Bay and I will O. K. them." Foraker responds that Topp is crazy and that he has known it for some time, yet he has made no move to displace him. There is too much method in such madness and Little Breches will find it hard to make people believe that his show of indignation is real. Foraker is a fraud of the first feather.

The Anti-Mahone republicans, who compose the better element of the party in Virginia, held a conference in Richmond, last week, and arraigned the little boss in the most unequivocal terms. Among other things they declared that Mahone made it impossible for the Norfolk ticket to be elected; that he has deceived the Republican National Committee by false pretenses; that his plan of organization is both hateful and tyrannical; that he has driven from the councils of the party the ablest men in it; that he has refused to abide by the decisions of the republican party in National Convention assembled, and that he has forfeited the right to the confidence of the people of Virginia.

The Civil Service law, although advocated by Harrison while he was Senator and endorsed by the republican platform, is as flagrantly ignored by the present administration as if it was not on the statute books. In the railway mail service, which is now under civil service rule, there have already been 2,434 dismissals, while during the whole of Cleveland's term, when the law was not applicable to that branch of the service, but 1,999 changes were made for all causes, including 768 resignations. The republican party is the party of spoils and to get them no law is allowed to stand in its way.

The Rev. George Washington Hutton, of Cincinnati, a colored divine, has given up his sacred calling for the menial but more lucrative one of janitor of the Louisville Custom House. This is a very small plum to drop from the rich man's table into the mouth of the poor negro, whose vote elected the person who presides at it, but even small favors are thankfully received by the race, which is in as much bondage politically as it need be physically.

The Iowa Supreme Court has rendered a decision which will be received with gratification by everyone who has suffered the tortures of a charivari. A young man shot one of his tormentors to death and was sentenced to seven years for it, but the higher court ruled that the killing was justifiable and ordered the release of the prisoner. The court is right. The average man or boy who goes into the charivari business deserves to be shot and killed too.

The editor of the Louisville Truth, Mr. Benjamin Ridgely, is a great big, jolly, good natured fellow, who does not believe in striking a man when he is down. The other day Col. John Cain attacked him for something he had said in a facetious way about him in the paper and endeavored to use his cane, but Mr. Ridgely threw him down and sat on him till mutual friends removed the seat. The colonel will never be guilty of a like indiscretion again.

FATHER BOYLE, a Catholic priest, has just been sentenced to death at Raleigh, N. C., after a sensational trial for the rape of a 15-year old girl, whom he enticed into his study. Reports from the various places that he has lived show him to be a very bad egg, using the livery of Heaven to enable him to raise money to be spent in riotous living with harlots.

The Owensboro Messenger has increased its size to 32 columns, making it one of the largest as it is one of the best dailies in the State. Urey Woodson seems to have a gold mine in the possession of a newspaper property in one of the most enterprising towns in the State.

The county committee met Saturday, but failed to change the ballot way of voting at the primary or to fix some test as to a man's democracy. The proceedings with the list of officers appointed to hold the primary election, Oct. 19, appear elsewhere in this issue.

A Mississippi woman fell into a mill-pond and when she was rescued a ten-pound catfish was entangled in her bustle. Her husband wanted to set her again, but she would not consent.—Ex.

WINCHESTER has a section of street car track, but no cars to speak of. Tom Stuart had a charter passed by the last legislature, giving him the right to build a street railroad in that growing city. It was to expire on the 6th of the month, but Mr. Stuart was under the impression that it held till Nov. 6th. He got home on the night of the 5th and learning his mistake he had the city council called together and after getting permission put 50 men to work by electric light at once. He borrowed rails and ties from railroad men and now has a section of street railroad built, thus saving his charter. Tom is hustler, but he must have that road in running order by the time the editors meet in Winchester, or he will lose his reputation as such.

This from the Louisville Commercial is unworthy of the man who is supposed to edit the paper:

"Until I looked into the statistics of our trade with South America I had no idea."—Interview of Hon. J. B. McCrory in New York paper.

Right you are, James. That's what we all believe.

"We all" do not believe any such thing, nor do we think the editor of the Commercial is such a monstrous fool as to believe it.

HOMER PRINCE, who has for two years presided with marked ability as editor-in-chief of the Hopkinsville Daily New Era, has retired and James R. Wood, brother of Hunter Wood, the owner of the paper, will return to his first love, which he left to go into the revenue service, and of which responsibility Mr. Harrison has kindly relieved him. Mr. Prince will no doubt find other newspaper work, as he is too good a man at the business to remain out of it.

The result of the elections shows Washington and North and South Dakota hopelessly republican, but Montana seems certainly to have elected Toole, democrat, for governor, and by the way, he is a Kentuckian, together with a legislature that will add two more democratic U. S. Senators to the list. Notwithstanding this, the republican candidate for Congress was elected by a majority of 1,600, accounted for by the unpopularity of the democratic candidate.

JUDGE GHESDAM is reported as saying that the democracy will nominate Grover Cleveland for president in 1892 and that "he can see no possible way by which Mr. Cleveland can be defeated." The judge demonstrates his sagacity in this remark and proves that he is as good a prophet as he is an upright and incorruptible jurist.

The Louisville Post is a good paper, but in its effort to issue a double number it should not use the same matter on more than one page. Friday's issue had dozens of articles used twice in the same number. Boiler plate matter would be better than that, if your union printers would allow it.

The Mayor's order closing the gambling shops in New Orleans, which plied their business as boldly as if it were legitimate, caused two of the gamblers to commit suicide. If a few more of such gentry would follow suit, the world would be none the worse for it.

The Louisville Commercial says that Mr. Edward L. Davison, Jr., of the Post staff, will leave for the mountains this week to take charge of the Pineville Messenger as editor and manager. He is spoken of very highly as an all-around newspaper man.

The prohibitionists can pick their flints and take fresh courage. Constitutional prohibition was adopted by a small majority in North Dakota last week. It is a long lane that has no turning, to be sure.

NEWS CONDENSED

—The Kansas City elevated railroad has failed for a million of dollars.

—Bessie F. Graham has been appointed postmaster at McAfee, Mercer county.

—Three men were killed and nine injured by a mine explosion at Red Jacket, Mich.

—The steamboat Corona, bound from New Orleans to the Onchita river, with a full list of passengers, exploded her boilers near Ambroth, 150 miles above New Orleans, and sank instantly. Thirty-six people perished and many others were injured. The boat was valued at $30,000.

—The railroad bridge across Tate's Creek, near Lexington, is to be 286 feet high, or one inch higher than the Tyronne bridge on the Louisville Southern. With the High Bridge on the Cincinnati Southern this will give Kentucky three of the highest structures of the kind in the world.

—Hon. Thomas H. Woods, appointed Chief Justice of Mississippi by Gov. Lowry, is a brother of Dr. John D. Woods, the genial ex-public printer. The new chief justice is the most promising lawyer of the Meridian bar. He is a native of Barren county, Ky., and an uncle of the talented editor of the Glasgow Times.—Louisville Times.

—Five weeks ago Mrs. Mary Gain at Bridgeport, N. Y., swallowed her false teeth. She had suffered untold agony and been reduced to a skeleton, when the surgeons, as a last resort, placed her under chloroform, cut into her stomach and removed the teeth. The operation was successfully accomplished and she is in a fair way to recover.

A DESPERATE

Cutting Affair

—AT—

THE LOUISVILLE STORE.

At this stage of the season we find ourselves

FEARFULLY OVERSTOCKED

And most inconvenient of all is the limited space we must put up with, as our store is actually too small for the large stock of goods we handle; therefore New Goods Must Go Down; and as it

Requires More than Talk to Move 'Em

Mr. Urbansky has issued positive instructions to each department to miss no sales under any consideration. "Get the goods out, no matter if you only get cost for some," is his edict in general and goes this week without limit or reserve. That his instructions are being strictly obeyed and desperate cuts are being made in prices in every department, pay us a visit this week and your time and money will not be wasted.

No old stock or odds and ends, but a grand assortment of New Fall Goods at lower prices, mark the term, Lower Prices, than same qualities can be sold at any other house in Stanford. We opened the last few weeks hundreds of cases of new goods in Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Carpets, Trunks, &c. Don't buy until you visit our store.

Talk about Bargains, we will give you such Values as will Open your Eyes with Astonishment. We are too busy to name prices. Not alone do we give such Immense Bargains, but we also give you a Ticket with every Dollar's worth of Goods for a Chance on a $200 Organ, which we give away during Christmas week at the LOUISVILLE STORE.

Mr. Geo. W. WELCH, Sr., of Danville, is very ill.
Mr. and Mrs. L. A. FARRIS have returned to Somerset.
Mrs. A. W. CARPENTER returned from Louisville yesterday.
Dr. W. B. PENNY and E. C. Walton went to Louisville Saturday.
Mr. M. H. HARDIN, of Monticello, is visiting his son, Mark Hardin.
Mrs. EMMA JONES and son Ed have returned from a visit to Richmond.
Mrs. L. H. HESSING and Miss Eliza Rount, of Somerset, are visiting here.
J. S. YORK and wife, of Highland, leave today for Kansas to visit relatives.
Mr. S. C. POLLARD, of the Blue Grass Hedge Co., is here to serve our farmers.
Mrs. MURPHY and Mrs. J. S. Hughes returned from Rock Castle Springs Friday.
Miss JESSIE MYERS fell down stairs a few days ago and severely sprained her ankle.
Mr. S. E. LUCKEY, of Gallatin, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Luckey.
Mrs. M. SALINGER is back, after a couple of weeks' visit to her father in Louisville.
Miss MARY NEEL, a lovely young lady from Columbia, has been visiting Miss Gertrude Grady.
JOHN A. BOWEN, late of the Parkville News, and mail clerk till Harrison fired him, is in town.
Mrs. CLEMENS and daughter, Mrs. W. O. Sweeney, of Lancaster, passed back from Louisville yesterday.
SIR KNIGHT R. M. JACKSON, of London, joined the Stanford Knights and all started to Washington Saturday.
Mr. A. URBANSKY, of the Louisville Store, was here yesterday helping the clerks dispose of dead loads of goods.
Mr. S. S. MYERS went to Louisville yesterday to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge, which convenes this morning.
REV. J. A. MEXGAY arrived Sunday thereby furnishing ocular demonstration that he is not a dead man by a jug full.
Mrs. B. W. HAINES, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Ballou, of Lancaster, are visiting relatives in Shelbyville.
BOYLE GILL BOYLE, of the Danville Advocate, was the only newspaper man who honored us with his presence yesterday.
That clever young trader, Mr. W. M. McCormack and his pretty bride, Miss Mollie Eubanks, attended church here Sunday.
Mrs. J. W. SALLER is visiting her sister, Mrs. Craig Lynn, near Stanford, who has been quite sick for several weeks.—Somerset Register.

Gov. JAMES B. McCREARY, our popular and excellent Commissioner, was with his constituents here yesterday, who are always glad to take him by the hand.
Mr. GEORGE H. HARDIN, mail clerk on the K. C., has gone to Louisville with the view of getting a run on the Knoxville Branch and Mr. B. G. Alford is working in his stead.
Col. W. O. BRADLEY, of Lancaster, passed down to Somerset yesterday. He says there is hardly a chance for the recovery of Mrs. D. R. Collier, who is exceedingly low with pneumonia.
The Advocate announces Robert Harding a candidate to succeed himself as county attorney. Mr. Harding is one of the best men who ever held the office in the State and the Boyle county people will doubtless retain him as long as they can.
SPEAKING OF Dr. W. M. Blain the Williamsburg News says: "His physicians say he will never recover his mind in case he recovers physically. He has been a resident of this county nearly 20 years, is a good physician, and a warmer, truer friend never lived. Accommodating and generous to a fault, his disability leaves a gap in his profession here that will not soon be filled."

CITY AND VICINITY.

Go to Zimmerman's for oysters.
New lot of millinery just received at Courts & Cox's.
For SALE.—60 of the 80 shares of stock in the Stanford Town Hall. Apply at this office.
Lost.—Between McKinney and the Hanging Fork road my pocket book containing about $20 and some papers, tax receipts, &c. Finder will be rewarded if left at this office or with Jacob Nance, McKinney.

New lot of jewelry and watches just received. W. B. McRoberts.
ANY ONE wishing a wheat drill will do well to see Mr. L. M. Bruce.
Our fall stock of millinery has arrived and we cordially invite the ladies to call and examine it. Courts & Cox.
Our elegant line of cloaks and wraps have arrived and will be open for inspection Wednesday. Owsley & Craig.
The large sale of stock and other valuable property belonging to the late R. W. Glyens will occur next Thursday. See ad.

Call at Higgins & McKinney's and see their line of heating stoves, grates, coal-beds, coal-vases, &c., before making your purchases.
HEAVY frosts have occurred the last three nights; that of yesterday morning being the heaviest of the season. Ice also formed and the weather here a wintry aspect generally.
S. L. POWERS & Co., tell the story of cheap prices and fair dealing in this issue and propose to continue it if it takes all winter. Read what they say and be prepared for even better news in future issues.

My jeweler, Mr. B. Banks, has arrived and is ready to wait on any who wish anything done in his line. He is also an expert engraver and will do that kind of work at very reasonable rates. W. B. McRoberts.
FIRE.—A dispatch from Versail says that the residence of Henry H. White, near there, caught fire from a defective flue and burned. Most of the contents were saved. Loss $1,500, fully covered by insurance.
The freight traffic on this division of the L. & N. is simply immense and with its present stock of engines the company finds it hard to keep it moving. The local freight Saturday had to be abandoned to give place to more important trains.

The Somerset papers announce the death of a boy into the family of John S. May. The mother was Miss Sallie Thurmond, of this county, and her friends will be interested to know that she and the baby are "doing well." The youngster weighed 12 pounds.
The Feland case, after occupying the court a week at Danville, and after a jury had wrestled with it 24 hours, ended in a verdict of $200 for the plaintiff against all the defendants save A. C. Curman, who was acquitted. This is $100 more than was awarded Mr. Feland at the last trial and it was the fourth jury to consider the case. The verdict will be accepted and the long and tiresome suit will end.
GOT HIS MAKE.—About a year ago, Harve Vinarsdale stole a mare from Wm. Arnett, of Lafine county, and sold her to his brother Sam in Mercer. He afterwards stole her from him and sold her a second time, W. L. Dishon, of this county, becoming the purchaser about the first of August last. Since Mr. Dishon has had her she dropped a fine milk colt. The other day Mr. Arnett, having traced her up, came and proving property, Mr. Dishon turned her over to him. The thief is now in the penitentiary, having been sent only last week for a similar offense committed in Christian county.

TO THE TAXPAYERS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.—For one year deputies will be in Hustonville, Saturday, September 28th and Saturday October 20th; Millersburg, Saturday October 5th; Moreland, Friday, October 18th; McKinney Friday, October 11th; Fry's Store Saturday, October 12th; Waynesburg Saturday, September 28th and Saturday, October 19th; Highland October 12th; Stanford, Crab Orchard and Kingsville every Saturday in September and October. The new revenue law adds 1 cent to every dollar of tax not paid by the first day of November and I am compelled by law to collect it, so everybody will please pay their taxes before that time. T. D. Newland.

ATTEMPT TO ROB A MAIL CAR.—At East Bernstadt, Saturday night, two men got on either end of the mail car of the northbound train and began to knock at the doors. Mail Clerk E. P. Norris, thinking some one wished to mail a letter, opened the door when a man threw a cocked pistol in his face. Mr. Norris grabbed the weapon, which was discharged, the ball passing through his hand and producing a flesh wound. The shot drew the express messenger to the scene and a scuffle ensued, during which the would-be robber was thrown against the side of the car and stunned. The man at the other door was making Herculean efforts to enter and the mail and express men, thinking there were several to contend with, caught the robber and threw him off the train while it was running at a high rate of speed. Reinforced by Baggage Master Lawrence and a U. S. Marshal, who was on the train, they went for the other fellow, who jumped off in the darkness and made his escape, followed by numerous pistol shots. The train did not stop, but men were dispatched back to the point to hunt the rascals, tho' nothing could be found of them. The men on the train deserve great praise for their heroic action, which will make train robbery decidedly unpopular in this civilized section.

Lost, between my house and the Methodist church, a silk muffler. Finder will be rewarded by returning to Mrs. W. N. Potts.
Wm. P., the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Darst, was thrown from a horse Saturday against a stump and quite painfully injured.

The rainfall for September was 4.38 inches, leaving the deficiency for the year 10.77 inches, according to the average of the last 17 years.
STYLISH SUITS made to order by John H. Craig & Son, with Wamamaker & Brown, Philadelphia, and Browning, King & Co., New York, at $20, $22.50, $25 to $75 and overcoats at $15 to $60. Satisfaction guaranteed or no sale.

There was a fair crowd in town yesterday, but it was a dull court so far as business was concerned. Three cows and a calf sold at auction for $25 and $30 for the former and $11 for the latter. The auctioneers are still on a strike against the license fee.

HAIR FARE TO DALLAS, TEXAS.—The Queen & Crescent Route will sell excursion tickets to Dallas, Texas, at one fare for the round-trip, on Oct. 15-16, tickets good for return until Oct. 31. Full particulars on application to agents of the Queen & Crescent System.

Our usual quota of reading matter is considerably abridged by the encroachments of the advertiser, but we will double up Friday and as often thereafter as occasion requires. Our press and other facilities are not surpassed in the State outside of Louisville, and no amount of advertising shall interfere with the duty we owe our other patrons.

COURT OF CLAIMS.—After Judge Varnon got through with his regular business in the County Court yesterday, which included the probating of the will of Allen Beazley, who leaves his life insurance policy in the Kentucky Grangers' institution of $2,000, and other effects to his wife, Mrs. Mildred A. Beazley, and appoints her his executor, the magistrates came in and the Court of Claims was convened. Those present were C. Brown, Charles Boone, M. H. Trench, John Ellis, J. A. Chappell, J. C. Neal, John Bailey, George W. Carson, Hugh Seargent, J. E. Lynn, M. S. Bastin. They will likely be in session several days.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—That rascal of sneakers, Robert Ray Hamilton, is now seeking a divorce from the woman who played him so successfully.
—Warren Stoner, of Bourbon, and Miss Jennie Fox, of Mt. Sterling, eloped to Cincinnati and were married at the Palace Hotel.
—Wm. C. Endicott, Jr., son of the late secretary of war, was married at Lenox, Mass., last week, to Miss Louisa Thorax, a rich and lovely woman.
—Mr. John von Grinigan Pfarrer, a widower, and Miss Bertha Hofer, both from Switzerland, were married at the Court house by Judge Varnon last week.
—The wife of Bluffe Myers, who eloped from Peerless, W. Va., with Miss Silby, pursued the guilty couple, shot the woman and let the husband off with a tongue lashing.
—A story of the killing of a Hatfield-McCoy couple and the clergyman who was performing the marriage ceremony is telegraphed from Jamboree, in Pike county, but it is not believed.

—Mr. J. K. Jones, a very excellent young gentleman of this vicinity, left yesterday for St. Joseph, Mo., where he will wed Miss Lodie, the accomplished daughter of Col. James Dysart, in a few days. Our hearty congratulations are herewith sent in advance.
—Dr. Joseph B. Graham, late of this county, but now U. S. physician at the Lower Brule Indian Agency, Dakota, was married in Lexington last week to Miss Mollie Maher, a lovely young lady, formerly of Toledo, O. Dr. Graham is a splendid young gentleman and his many friends in Lincoln send warm congratulations to him and his bride. After spending a few days in Louisville, the happy pair left for their far-off Northwestern home.

—Dr. Briand, a distinguished young French physician attached to the hospital at Villejarr, is reported to have effected some remarkable cures of consumption by means of the cold-air cure, which consists mainly in gradually accustoming the patients to exposure until they are able to sleep out in the open air, regardless of the weather.
